Course Prefix and Number: ACC 219

Course Title: Governmental and Non-Profit Accounting

Course Description: Introduces fund accounting as used by governmental and nonprofit entities. Stresses differences between accounting principles of for-profit and not-for-profit organizations. Prerequisite: ACC 212 or program head approval. Lecture 3 hours per week.

General Course Purpose: An introductory course in not-for-profit and governmental automated accounting designed for two-year accounting majors and non-curricular students.

Course Prerequisites and Co-requisites:
Prerequisite: ACC 212 or program head approval

Student Learning Outcomes:
Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to:
- a. Demonstrate an understanding of the basics of governmental accounting;
- b. Identify and discuss the major fund classes and two account groups used by governmental organizations;
- c. Demonstrate a working knowledge of the budgetary systems used for financial planning control in governmental and non-profit organizations; and
- d. Demonstrate knowledge of the difference between for-profit and not-for-profit organizations.

Major Topics to Be Included:
- a. Governmental and Non-Profit Organizations--Overall Concepts/Overview of Accounting Principles for these Entities
- b. Accounting Principles and Concepts for State and Local Governments
- c. Discussion of Funds Including General, Special, and Capital Project
- d. Discussion of Debt Service Funds, General Long-Term Account Group, Internal Service, Enterprise, and Fiduciary Funds, Budgeting Practices, and Conduct of Audits for Non-Profit and Government Entities
- e. Accounting for Voluntary Health and Welfare and Other Non-Profit Organizations

Date Created/Updated (Month, Day, and Year): September 3, 2019