SPRING 2015
LICENSENURSE RENEWAL FOR TEACHERS

NEW COURSE!

EDU 295 Topics in Education: Teaching Online Project for PreK-12 (TOPPK-12)
Prepares instructors in the pedagogy and course administration of teaching online courses and provides an overview of various technologies available for online instruction. Focuses on the strategies of collaborating and teaching online. This course is intended for PreK-12 teachers and administrators. Prerequisites: Must be a licensed and/or in-service PreK-12 teacher or administrator and have basic computer skills. This is a 12-week course.

EDU 220 Teaching Reading (3 credits)
Provides instruction in concepts and strategies involved in teaching reading at the K-12 levels. Includes topics on literacy and components and development, various reading programs, technology integration, and assessment tools. This is a 12-week distance learning course that begins February 10.

EDU 295 Topics in Education: Updating Assessment for Student Growth (3 credits)
This course is offered to provide in-service teachers with a deeper understanding of classroom assessment. It establishes a forum for teachers to work collaboratively to gain proficiency in the latest assessment techniques. A balanced assessment approach grounded in the use of formative and summative assessments will be emphasized.

A unique feature of this course is that assignments will focus on the implementation of course content in each teacher’s individual classroom setting. Prerequisite: Must be a licensed and/or in-service PreK-12 teacher or administrator. This is a 12-week course. The first class meeting is on Wednesday, February 11.

EDU 214 Instructional Principles of Driver Education (3 credits)
Analyzes rules and regulations that govern the conduct of driver education programs with special emphasis on organization and administration. Includes uses in the classroom, driving range, and on the street. Prepares students so they may be eligible to take the state certification exam in driver education. Prerequisite: EDU 114. Special Session Begins 03-03-15 Ends 04-16-15
