Reynolds Community College to host Movie “Amélie”

RICHMOND, Va. (March 18, 2014) – J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College will host an “Around the World Through Movies” event on Friday, April 4, from 6 to 8:30 p.m. in the Gallery at Georgiadis Hall on the Parham Road Campus, located at 1651 E. Parham Road in Richmond. This event is free and open to the public, with pre and post movie discussion, light refreshments, and door prizes.

“Amélie is a shy young woman who has a love of life’s small pleasures. While she takes joy in the slightest things in life she is still looking for love as well as the course her life should take. Her slightly dysfunctional family have fostered her tentative interaction with her neighbors as well as the customers of the Parisian restaurant where she waitresses. When she successfully tracks down the owner of a box of boyhood treasures that she found in her house she begins to believe that she might have the power to influence more of the people around her. This fairy-tale style film follows the heroine until she finds love and her place in life even though everyone around her has always underestimated her.”

This Around the World through Movies event is sponsored by Reynolds’ Multicultural Enrichment Council for the purpose of encouraging cultural diversity throughout the college’s campuses and communities.

For more information please contact Lily Mirjahangiri at lmirjahangiri@reynolds.edu.

Serving over 20,000 students annually, J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College is the youngest and third largest of 23 community colleges in Virginia. The College operates three campuses serving residents in the City of Richmond and the counties of Henrico, Hanover, Goochland, Powhatan and Louisa.

##