Reynolds Welcomes New College Board Members

RICHMOND, Va. (October 6, 2014) – J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College recently welcomed three new members to the Reynolds College Board.

Anne V. Moore joins the board representing Powhatan County after nearly 40 years in the education field. Ms. Moore began her career with Chesterfield County Public Schools as a teacher. She then spent 22 years as the director of St. Luke’s Preschool, overseeing a staff of 30 and an enrollment of 220 children. Most recently, Ms. Moore mentored fellow preschool directors as part of the United Way’s STAR “Success by 6” program. Ms. Moore previously served as president of Chesterfield CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates) and is also a two-time winner of the Chesterfield County Police Department’s “Volunteer of the Year” award. Ms. Moore earned her degree in elementary education from the University of Richmond.

Goldie Settles joins the board representing Henrico County after 32 years as an exceptional educator for Richmond City Public Schools. Ms. Settles currently serves on the board of Cedar Street Baptist Church and has extensive previous volunteer service with the Richmond Education Association, Richmond Retired Teachers Association and other local groups. Ms. Settles earned her undergraduate degree from Virginia State University and a master’s in education from Virginia Tech.

Fred Babik also joins the board representing Henrico County and is the founder and managing partner of AJB Properties, a real estate equity investment trust. Mr. Babik previously spent ten years as a senior manager at Deloitte, working in assurance and advisory services and serving various Fortune 500 clients. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Virginia Society of Certified Public Accountants, National Association of Realtors, and Richmond Association of Realtors. Mr. Babik earned his degree in business administration from MEU of La Sierra University and a post-baccalaureate certification in accounting from Virginia Commonwealth University.
The Reynolds College Board has fifteen members each appointed by the local elected officials body in the members’ respective service regions. Board members serve a four-year term and are eligible to serve a maximum of two consecutive terms.

Serving over 20,000 students annually, J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College is the youngest and third largest of 23 community colleges in Virginia. The College operates three campuses serving residents in the City of Richmond and the counties of Henrico, Hanover, Goochland, Powhatan and Louisa.
