Reynolds Welcomes New College Board Members

RICHMOND, Va. (April 22, 2014) – J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College recently welcomed two new members to the Reynolds College Board.

Capt. Richard “Rick” C. Rush, USN (Ret.) joins the board representing Henrico County after more than 34 years of active duty service as a surface warfare officer in the United States Navy. Most recently Captain Rush worked as a senior manager and Principal Naval Operations Analyst for Systems Planning and Analysis, Inc., a private company supporting high-level decision makers at the Department of Defense. Captain Rush is a graduate of the United States Naval Academy and holds three master degrees in International Relations, National Security and Strategic Studies, and Management, respectively from Salve Regina University, the Naval War College and Webster University.

Thurman “Trip” S. Cash III, CIC joins the board representing the City of Richmond. Cash serves as vice president of Thurman S. Cash Jr. & Son Insurance Agency, Inc. and is a graduate of the University of Richmond.

The Reynolds College Board has fifteen members each appointed by the local elected officials body in the members’ respective service regions. Board members serve a four-year term and are eligible to serve a maximum of two consecutive terms.

Serving over 20,000 students annually, J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College is the youngest and third largest of 23 community colleges in Virginia. The College operates three campuses serving residents in the City of Richmond and the counties of Henrico, Hanover, Goochland, Powhatan and Louisa.
