Reynolds Community College to host “To Kill a Mockingbird” on November 18

RICHMOND, Va. (November 6, 2014) – Reynolds Community College will host a performance of “To Kill a Mockingbird” performed by the National Players Club on Tuesday, November 18 in the Lipman Auditorium of the Massey Library Technology Center on the Parham Road Campus located at 1651 E. Parham Road in Richmond. This event is free and open to the community. Doors open at 6 p.m. and the performance begins at 6:30 p.m.

Published in the 1960’s and written by Harper Lee, the story takes place during the Great Depression in Alabama. It focuses on six-year-old Scout Finch, who lives with her older brother, Jem, and their widowed father, Atticus, a middle-aged lawyer. The novel is renowned for its warmth and humor, despite dealing with the serious issues of rape and racial inequality.

The National Players Club is America’s longest running touring company. It has performed in the East Wing of the White House, in Europe, Asia, and the Middle East for American military, and throughout 40 states. Known for its talent and commitment to excellence, National Players has brought literature to life for more than 2.5 million audience members.
