Women’s History Month Celebration at Reynolds

RICHMOND, Va. (February 25, 2015) – J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College presents a celebration of Women’s History Month entitled “Empowerment: Connecting the Past, Present and Future” on Friday, March 20 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Workforce Development Conference Center located on the Parham Road Campus at 1651 East Parham Road, Richmond, Virginia 23228.

This celebration, sponsored by Reynolds’ Multicultural Enrichment Council, will feature established women from the Greater Richmond community who will share their paths to success as well as young women from local colleges and universities who will share their future goals.

The program will feature a luncheon with Carrie Rose, Meteorologist, WTVR CBS 6 as the featured speaker. The first post-luncheon panel features:

Carrie Rose, Meteorologist, WTVR CBS 6
Patti Jackson, Senior Director, Partner Relationships for the American Cancer Society and Environmentalist
Julie Williams-Byrd, NASA Electro-Optics Engineer

The second post-luncheon, student panel features:

Mayola Mayhew, Reynolds Community College
Mel Shuaipi, University of Richmond
Aditi Jain, Virginia Commonwealth University

Reba Hollingsworth of “CBS 6 This Morning” will serve as mistress of ceremonies.

Interested attendees can register at http://tinyurl.com/reynoldswhm. Cost to participate is $40.00 for early registration (postmarked or received by March 6, 2015) and $50.00 for regular registration. Registrations may also be mailed to Reynolds Community College, Central Business Office, P.O. Box 85622, Richmond, VA 23285-5622. Checks should be made payable to J.
