Reynolds Goochland Campus Hosts Garden Fest

RICHMOND, Va. (March 14, 2018) – “Spring in the Garden” is the theme of the 2018 Annual Spring Garden Fest hosted by Reynolds Community College, the Goochland-Powhatan Master Gardeners and the Virginia Cooperative Extension. This year’s event is Saturday, April 21 from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m., rain or shine, on the Reynolds Goochland Campus, 1851 Dickinson Road, Goochland 23063.

Spring Garden Fest is a day filled with valuable gardening information. Nationally recognized horticulturalist and author Jeff Gillman will speak at 9 a.m. on “The Truth about Garden Remedies” and a 1 p.m. on “The Truth about Organic Gardening.”

Jeff is the author of five books and a Contributing Editor to Fine Gardening Magazine. He has appeared on Martha Stewart and Growing a Greener World. The fee for each talk is $25 and advance registration is required at www.gpmga.org or by calling 804-556-5841. Attendees are encouraged to register early for these talks. Space is limited.

The public is invited to stop by any time during the event at no cost and stroll the beautiful campus landscape and display gardens. Garden tool sharpening and an “Ask the Experts” table will be available. Vendors will be selling plants and other garden-related items throughout the day. Local Master Gardeners will also be on-hand to answer questions and give gardening tips.

For more information, visit www.gpmga.org or call 804.556-5841.

Serving over 20,000 students annually, J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College is the youngest and third largest of 23 community colleges in Virginia. The College operates three campuses serving residents in the City of Richmond and the counties of Henrico, Hanover, Goochland, Powhatan and Louisa.
