Reynolds to host 14th Annual Science Night

RICHMOND, Va. (February 27, 2018) – Reynolds Community College will host its 14th Annual Science Night on Wednesday, March 14th, from 6 to 8 p.m. in Burnette Hall on the Parham Road Campus, located at 1651 E. Parham Road in Richmond.

This year, Science Night will be an interactive science experience with lab demonstrations hosted by Reynolds departments of Biology, Geology, Engineering, Physics, Honors, and Math Central along with other area organizations such as the Hanover Extension Office, Henricopolis Soil and Water Conservation, Math Science Innovation Center, Mattaponi Pamunkey Rivers Association, Science Matters – Community Idea Stations, Virginia Herpetological Society and more. This event is free and the public is invited to come out and experience the fun of scientific discovery.

The program is a community event sponsored by Reynolds School of Mathematics, Science and Engineering. For more information about this event please contact Karen Neal (kneal@reynolds.edu) or visit www.reynolds.edu.

Serving over 18,000 students annually, J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College is the youngest and third largest of 23 community colleges in Virginia. The College operates three campuses serving residents in the City of Richmond and the counties of Henrico, Hanover, Goochland, Powhatan and Louisa.
