

J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College
Course Content Summary

Course Prefix and Number: CHD 119

Credits: 3

Course Title: Introduction to Reading Methods

Course Description: Focuses on promoting language and literacy skills as the foundation for emergent reading. Emphasizes phonetic awareness and alphabetic principles, print awareness and concepts, comprehension and early reading and writing. Addresses strategies for intervention and support for exceptional children and English Language Learners. Lecture 2 hours. Laboratory 2 hours. Total 4 hours per week.

General Course Purpose: To develop the student's skills in planning and implementing language arts activities for children in late preschool and kindergarten through third grade. Emphasis is placed on assessment of language arts materials and trends in reading and writing instruction. The course is designed for educators teaching children in the early childhood age range.

Course Prerequisites and Co-requisites:
None

Student Learning Outcomes:

Upon completing the course, the student will be able to

- a. Recognize stages of language development in young children and apply this knowledge when teaching children;
- b. Develop materials and activities suitable for supporting children's developing emergent, early, and fluent reading skills;
- c. Evaluate teaching strategies which promote the development of emergent, early, and fluent reading skills in young children;
- d. Identify appropriate books and media materials for children who are beginning to read and write;
- e. Appraise use of techniques to assess children's developing reading and writing skills;
- f. Differentiate adaptive learning materials to meet the needs of all children, including children with special needs in language arts;
- g. Distinguish wide range of skills for promoting language and literacy skills that are sensitive to the language spoken in the child's home, and meets the needs of individual learners; and
- h. Identify and apply learning standards as they relate to reading methods: the Virginia Foundation Blocks and Standards of Learning in English from K-3.

Major Topics to Be Included:

- a. Various methods of reading instruction
- b. Individual student assessment and planning
- c. Phonemic awareness and comprehension strategies
- d. Developing literacy skills
- e. Individualization of instruction across a range of development

Optional Topics:

- a. Impact of second language acquisition on developing literacy
- b. Options in instruction for students with an IEP

Date Created/Updated (Month, Day, Year): January 29, 2019