

The Reynolds FAN: More Than Just the FAFSA

You might have heard that the 2021-2022 FAFSA is now available to complete. This is the FAFSA used for the Fall 2021, Spring 2022, and Summer 2022 semesters; Complete this by April 15th to meet Reynolds's priority deadline.

If you need help with completing the FAFSA please join the Office of Financial Aid at one of our FAFSA Workshops!

But the FAFSA is not the only way to help finance your education at Reynolds! This edition of the Reynolds FAN wants to look at other options and resources available to help meet your needs while you attend Reynolds.

Scholarships!

Open December 1, 2020 - March 1, 2021

Tips for completing the application

- Take your time!
- Tell us about any volunteering that you have done, what you want to do with your major and how this scholarship will help you.
- Check grammar!
- Get someone to read your essay.

Other Methods!

- Payment Plan: Pay your balance spread across separate payments.
- Virginia 529: Turn your or your parent(s)'s investment into credit hour payments.
- Military Tuition Assistance or Benefits: Thank you for your service! Make sure you know where to go to utilize your benefits.

Single Stop!

A resource to help students address any hurdles that can occur along their journey.

Services include, but not limited to:

- Food Pantries
- Emergency Loans
- Financial Education
- Tax Preparation
- and more!

Did you know Virginia 211 is a resource that can help you with food, housing, and mental health services too?

Click Here to fill out this month's poll question to let us know your strategy on completing the 2021-2022 FAFSA...

...and don't forget about our monthly Financial Literacy series. Click here to sign up for November's event:

"Insurance: What You Need to Know".